The Intentional Leadership Course for Executives

The Center for Intentional Leadership develops leaders, teams and organizations to create significant, sustainable, positive change.
Organizations are shaped by the vision, style, and behavior of their leaders. As organizations change and grow, an executive’s ability to build trust and engagement, remain centered in a clear vision, sustain health and balance, and inspire the best from others becomes increasingly important.

The Intentional Leadership Course for Executives is an intensive development experience that will expand your ability to influence the growth and direction of your organization. This program will challenge the way you think about your organization, your leadership and your life and ultimately create new ways of thinking and behaving to achieve powerful results.

Outcomes include:
- Optimal Performance
- Leading Change and Innovation
- Coaching and Developing Others
- Building Engagement, Trust and Morale
- Developing Wellness and Balance
- Creating a Healthy Culture
- Communicating for Results
- Stewardship
- Building and Maintaining Strong Partnerships

Our primary goal is to help you achieve a substantial increase in performance and support you in leading a successful, meaningful and balanced life.

"It takes some people 3-4 years to learn a lesson that the Center for Intentional Leadership can teach in 3-6 months...we have consistently seen increases in the proficiency of individuals, teams, and operational performance."

- Fred Morganthall, President, Harris Teeter
Intentional Leadership for Executives:

Leading Organizational Culture

The Intentional Leadership Course enhances and expands the ability to lead a successful and healthy organizational culture. Executives will eliminate performance barriers, expand natural leadership strengths and lead change.

Course Components

The course is intentionally designed to create and experience a challenging, insightful and high-impact dialogue. It is lead by a team of consultants and includes facilitated conversations, breakout sessions and individualized coaching.

Preparation

Intentional Leadership for Executives begins with one-on-one coaching, a series of assessments and assignments to identify their current state, desired outcomes and establish goals.

Three-Day, Off-Site Session

The three day course is a dynamic, facilitated conversation including large group, small group and one-on-one coaching. An interactive dialogue and assignments instill core principles, provide feedback, and leverage the group’s experiences, while accelerating learning, growth and development.

Small Group Accountability Sessions

Participants depart the three day executive retreat with a plan of action and a facilitated accountability group to reinforce and support their progress. During this period, participants apply their learnings within the organization.

One-on-One Executive Coaching Sessions

Participants receive one-on-one coaching to concentrate on key focus areas, refine goal setting and further develop action plans.

Executive Group Coaching Session

Leaders reconvene for a full day group session to deepen and expand learnings from the three-day course and real-world experiences. The group coaching environment provides real-time feedback, peer support and executive coaching to apply the lessons to organizational and personal experiences.
